

Globus Medical to Acquire Nevro Corp. to Expand Treatment Options for Patients

February 6, 2025

AUDUBON, Pa. and REDWOOD CITY, Calif., Feb. 06, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Globus Medical (NYSE: GMED), a leading musculoskeletal solutions company, and Nevro Corp. (NYSE: NVRO), a global medical device company that is delivering comprehensive, life-changing solutions for the treatment of chronic pain, today announced they have entered into a definitive agreement for Globus Medical to acquire all shares of Nevro in an all-cash transaction. Under the terms of the agreement, which was unanimously approved by the boards of directors of both companies, Globus Medical will acquire all shares of Nevro for $5.85 per share. The transaction represents a total equity value of approximately $250 million.

"This transaction furthers our mission to become the preeminent musculoskeletal technology company in the world by enabling us to expand into new markets for future growth, while gaining access to world-class, differentiated technologies that can provide significant benefit in neuromodulation, enabling technologies, and future implant solutions. We believe our size and operational capabilities will accelerate market penetration of Nevro's technology and bring much needed and clinically superior relief to patients suffering from chronic pain," said Dan Scavilla, President and CEO of Globus Medical. "In addition, our scale and operational discipline will allow us to optimize Nevro's financial performance to drive enhanced profitability and create long-term value moving ahead."

"We are thrilled to join Globus Medical as this will allow us to reach more patients globally with clinically proven, innovative products that significantly reduce the burden of chronic pain," said Kevin Thornal, Nevro's CEO and President. "Through Globus Medical's capabilities, global infrastructure and other resources, we will be better positioned to achieve our full potential to become a broader and more diversified leader in the pain management space."

Transaction Terms

The $5.85 per share consideration represents a 27% premium to the 90-day volume-weighted average price (VWAP) of $4.61, a 38% premium to the 30-day VWAP of $4.23, and a 17% premium to Nevro's closing market price on February 5, 2025. The transaction is expected to close late in the second quarter of 2025, subject to the approval of Nevro's shareholders, regulatory approval, and other customary closing conditions.
