

GLOBUS MEDICAL, INC.

CODE OF ETHICS FOR

PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE OFFICER AND SENIOR FINANCIAL OFFICERS

Globus Medical, Inc. (the “Company”) has a Code of Conduct applicable to all directors and employees of the Company. The principal executive officer (“PEO”) and all senior financial officers, including the chief financial officer and the principal accounting officer or controller, or persons performing similar functions (each a “Senior Financial Officer”), are bound by the provisions set forth in the Code of Conduct relating to ethical conduct, conflicts of interest and compliance with law. In addition to the Code of Conduct, the PEO and Senior Financial Officers are subject to the following additional specific policies (this “Code”):

1. The PEO and all Senior Financial Officers are responsible for full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in the reports and documents filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission and in other public communications made by the Company. Accordingly, it is the responsibility of the PEO and each Senior Financial Officer promptly to bring to the attention of the Audit Committee any material information of which he or she may become aware that affects the disclosures made by the Company in its public filings or otherwise assist the Audit Committee in fulfilling its responsibilities as specified on financial reporting and disclosure.
2. The PEO and all Senior Financial Officers shall act honestly, ethically, in good faith, responsibly, with due care, competence and diligence, and without misrepresenting material facts or allowing their independent judgment to be subordinated.
3. The PEO and all Senior Financial Officers shall respect the confidentiality of information acquired in the course of their work except when authorized or otherwise legally obligated to disclose such information. Confidential information acquired in the course of their work may not be used for personal advantage.
4. The PEO and all Senior Financial Officers shall use any and all Company assets and resources employed or entrusted to them in a responsible manner.
5. The PEO and all Senior Financial Officers shall, and shall strive to ensure that all other officers and employees, carry out their duties in compliance with all applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations.
6. The PEO and each Senior Financial Officer shall promptly bring to the attention of the Audit Committee any information he or she may have concerning (a) significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls which could adversely affect the Company's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial data or (b) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves any director, officer or other employee who has a significant role in the Company's financial reporting, disclosure or internal controls for disclosure and financial reporting.

7. The PEO and each Senior Financial Officer shall promptly bring to the attention of the Audit Committee any information he or she may have concerning any actual or apparent conflict of interest, whether in the past, ongoing or contemplated, between personal and professional relationships, involving himself or herself or any other officer or employee or director who has a significant role in the Company's financial reporting, disclosure or internal controls for disclosure and financial reporting.
8. The PEO and each Senior Financial Officer shall promptly bring to the attention of the Audit Committee any information he or she may have concerning evidence of any violation of the securities or other laws, rules or regulations applicable to the Company and the operation of its business, by the Company or any agent thereof, or of violation of the Code of Conduct or of this Code.
9. To encourage the prompt reporting of matters requiring reporting or disclosure under this Code, the Company will not allow retaliation for reports made in good faith.
10. The Board of Directors shall determine, or designate appropriate persons to determine, appropriate actions to be taken in the event of violations of the Code of Conduct or of this Code by the PEO and the Senior Financial Officers. Such actions shall be reasonably designed to deter wrongdoing and to promote accountability for adherence to the Code of Conduct and to this Code, and shall include written notices to the individual involved that the Board has determined that there has been a violation, censure by the Board, demotion or re-assignment of the individual involved, suspension with or without pay or benefits, and termination of the individual's employment, all as determined by the Board. In determining what action is appropriate in a particular case, the Board or such designee shall take into account all relevant information, including the nature and severity of the violation, whether the violation was a single occurrence or repeated occurrences, whether the violation appears to have been intentional or inadvertent, whether the individual in question had been advised prior to the violation as to the proper course of action and whether or not the individual in question had committed other violations in the past.

11. Any request for a waiver of any provision of this Code must be in writing and addressed to the Chairman of the Audit Committee. The Board, or an authorized committee of the Board, will have the sole and absolute discretionary authority to approve any waiver from this Code. All waivers from this Code will be disclosed promptly as required by law.

This Code is intended to constitute a “code of ethics” as defined in Securities and Exchange Commission Regulation S-K Item 406 and a “code of business conduct and ethics” as defined in Rule 303A.10 of the NYSE listed company manual or the rules of any other self-regulatory organization on which the Company’s securities are listed.

Adopted by the Board of Directors on March 13, 2012.
